[PUBLIC—NO. 387—74TH CONGRESS]

[H. R. 8473]

AN ACT To provide for the compiling and publishing of the Official Register of the United States

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Civil Service Commission shall cause to be compiled, edited, indexed, and published each year an Official Register of the United States, which shall contain a full and complete list of all persons occupying administrative and supervisory positions in the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, including the District of Columbia, in connection with which salaries are paid from the Treasury of the United States. The register shall show the name; official title; salary, compensation, and emoluments; legal residence and place of employment for each person listed therein: Provided, however, That the Official Register shall not contain the name of any postmaster or assistant postmaster, or any officer of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, unless such officer is assigned as an administrative officer.

SEC. 2. To enable the United States Civil Service Commission to compile and publish the Official Register of the United States on or before December 31 of each year, the Executive Office, the legislative and judicial branches of the Government, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and the head of each executive department, independent office, establishment, and commission of the Government shall, as of the 1st day of May of each year, beginning with May 1, 1936, supply to the United States Civil Service Commission the data required by this Act, upon forms approved and furnished by the Commission, in due time to permit the publication of the Official Register as herein provided; and no extra compensation shall be allowed to any officer, clerk, or employee of the United States Civil Service Commission for compiling the Official Register.

SEC. 3. Of the Official Register there shall be printed, bound, and delivered to the Superintendent of Documents and charged to the Congressional allotment for printing and binding a sufficient number of copies for distribution as follows: To the President of the United States, four copies, one copy of which shall be for the library of the Executive Office; to the Vice President of the United States, two copies; to each Senator, Representative, Delegate, and Resident Commissioner in Congress, three copies; to the Secretary and the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and to the clerk, the Sergeant at Arms, and the Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, each one copy; to the Library of the Senate and the House, each, not to exceed fifteen copies; to the library of the Supreme Court, two copies; to the Library of Congress, for international exchange and for official use in Washington, District of Columbia, not to exceed one hundred and fifty copies; to the Municipal library of the District of Columbia, two copies; and to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, ten copies. The "usual number" shall not be printed.

SEC. 4. The head of each executive department, independent office, or establishment of the Government, not mentioned above, desiring copies of the Official Register shall issue, on or before May 1 of each year, a requisition upon the Public Printer for the number of copies of the Official Register necessary to meet its official requirements, the cost of such supply to be charged to the appropriations available for printing and binding for such executive department, independent office, or establishment.

SEC. 5. That section 510 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and section 2 of the Act discontinuing the printing of certain Government publications, and for other purposes (43 Stat. 1105), approved March 3, 1925, and all Acts or parts of Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Approved, August 28, 1935.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

The Smithsonian Institution was created by act of Congress in 1846, under the terms of the will of James Smithson, an Englishman, who in 1829 bequeathed his fortune to the United States to found at Washington, under the name of the "Smithsonian Institution," an establishment for the "increase and diffusion of knowledge among men." The Smithsonian fund has been increased by other bequests and gifts. The Institution is legally an establishment having as its members the President of the United States, the Vice President, the Chief Justice, and the President's Cabinet. It is governed by a board of regents appointed by joint resolution of Congress, all of whom serve without compensation. The Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution is its executive officer and the director of its activities.

[1] The amount of money shown in this column is based on less than 2 years' service. Subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the President, members of the uniformed services entitled to receive basic pay shall, in addition thereto, be entitled to receive incentive pay as determined by the Secretary of the department concerned, for duty as a crew member involving frequent and regular participation in aerial flights; or for duty on board a submarine, including submarines under construction from the time builders' trials commence. (An Army or Air Force officer assigned to submarine duty with the Navy will be paid additional pay in accordance with Navy regulations.)

[2] The Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff shall receive the basic pay and basic and personal money allowances prescribed by law for the Chief of Staff, United States Army, and such special pays and incentive pay to which he may be entitled under other provisions of law.

[3] Officers appointed in the grade of General of the Army (5 star) or General of the Air Force (5 star) shall receive the pay and allowances as a major general, plus a personal money allowance of $5,000 per annum. Officers appointed in the grade of Fleet Admiral shall receive the pay and allowances as a rear admiral (upper half), plus a personal money allowance of $5,000 per annum.

[4] A general officer appointed as Chief of Staff to the President, unless he be entitled to rank, title, or grade, and the pay and allowances of a general, or a higher grade under some other provisions of law, shall, when appointed to such position, have the rank, title, pay, and allowances of a general.

[5] An officer entitled to receive basic pay shall, while serving as the Chief of Staff of the Army, as the Chief of Naval Operations, as the Chief of Staff of the Air Force, or as the Commandant of the Marine Corps, shall, in lieu of any other personal money allowance, but in addition to any other pay or allowance, be entitled to receive a personal money allowance of $4,000 per annum. However, if such officer has been appointed in the grade of General of the Army (5 star), General of the Air Force (5 star), or Fleet Admiral, he shall receive the personal money allowance of $5,000 instead of the allowance of $4,000. (See footnote 3 above.)

[6] A general or admiral will in addition to any other authorized pay and allowances, be entitled to a personal money allowance of $2,200 per annum. An officer serving on active duty in the grade of general (4 star) or admiral shall, in addition to the pay and allowances to which he is entitled, be entitled to an additional increment of basic pay in an amount of $200 per month.

[7] A lieutenant general or vice admiral will, in addition to any other authorized pay and allowance, be entitled to a personal money allowance of $500 per annum. An officer serving on active duty in the grade of lieutenant general or vice admiral shall, in addition to the pay and allowances to which he is entitled, be entitled to an additional increment of basic pay in the amount of $100 per month.

[8] A senior member of the Military and Naval Staff Committee of the United Nations, shall, while so serving, be entitled to the rank, pay, and allowances of a vice admiral or lieutenant general, and, in addition thereto, a personal money allowance of $2,200 per annum.

INCENTIVE PAY FOR HAZARDOUS DUTY NOTES

1. An officer assigned to one of the duties listed below will be entitled to incentive pay in the amount of $110 per month:

a. Frequent and regular participation in aerial flights not as a crew member.
b. Parachute jumping as an essential part of military duty.
c. Duty involving intimate contact with persons afflicted with leprosy.
d. Demolition of explosives as a primary duty including training for such duty.
e. Duty at a submarine escape training tank (Department of the Navy), when such duty involves participation in training.
f. Duty at the Navy Deep Sea Diving School or Navy Experimental Diving Unit when such duty involves participation in training.
g. Duty as a low-pressure chamber inside observer.
h. Duty as a human acceleration or deceleration experimental subject.
i. Duty involving the use of helium-oxygen for a breathing mixture in the execution of deep-sea diving.

A member who, for the same period of time qualified for payment for more than one type of incentive pay, by reason of the performance of duties, shall not be entitled to receive more than one payment of incentive pay for such period.

2. Special pay for diving duty, $5.50 per hour. A member who qualified for incentive pay and special pay for diving duty at the hourly rate of $5.50 pursuant to section 205b, for the same period is entitled to receive this special pay for diving in addition to the incentive pay.
